

Position: Campus Teacher

Location: Ann Arbor, MI

Job Type: Full-time/In-person

DESCRIPTION

Are you looking to rediscover the joy of teaching again? Eager to embark on a journey where your students' interests and passions guide the learning process? Envision yourself in a nurturing environment with small class sizes, championing personalized education? Do you see the world as a boundless classroom and would jump at the opportunity to work with a global team? If you're thinking "yes!" to these questions...Let's connect!

Currently, we have a need for certified teachers in Early Elementary and Middle School for the 2024-2025 school year to guide learning in multiage classrooms on our beautiful learner-centered campus in Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Clonlara School is a nonprofit, K–12 private school that serves more than 2,000 students around the world through our Campus and Off-Campus Programs. Our mission is to transform education on a global scale through a highly personalized approach that fosters authenticity, autonomy, and joy in the learning process. We are truly a global learning community.

Responsibilities

This role requires a teacher with an engaging and interactive style to deliver Clonlara's highly personalized Full Circle Learning Model, and to enthusiastically participate in activities to grow enrollment and foster community in our school.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to

- Delivering Clonlara's Full Circle Learning Model thoroughly and consistently in a multiage classroom setting.
- Working closely with each student's parents, educational advisor, and the Campus Leader to provide a personalized learning experience.
- Developing an innovative curriculum tailored to the individual educational needs of each student.
- Building meaningful, caring relationships with students.
- Selecting and using effective instructional methods and learning materials.
- Providing supportive communication to students and their parents.
- Assessing and evaluating student progress and growth.
- Fostering self-esteem, motivation, and a sense of responsibility in students.
- Documenting learning for each student and keeping their records current, complete, and confidential.
- Representing Clonlara through outreach and recruitment activities, such as information sessions, and open houses.

This is an overview of the expectations for this position. A more detailed description of this role will be provided during the interview process.

Background and Skills

We are looking for candidates who

- Have a bachelor's degree in education, with current elementary or secondary teaching certification.
- Value teamwork and consensus building.
- Understand student autonomy, empowerment, and engagement.
- Have strong cross-cultural understanding and the ability to communicate with diverse populations.
- Are collaborative, non-judgmental in their approach to individual circumstances, preferences, and choices.
- Are familiar with progressive education movements (e.g., "free," alternative, and democratic schools) and educational philosophies such as Montessori, Reggio Emilia, and Waldorf.
- Can differentiate instruction to meet the needs of students at different ages and abilities.
- Have experience leading project-based learning classrooms and/or activities.
- Possess exceptional written and verbal communication skills.
- Understand the function and use of educational apps and have strong proficiency in the use of Office 365 tools (Teams, Word, PowerPoint, and Excel).

Other preferred skills include

- Sensitivity, respect, and a consistently positive attitude toward working with students and families.
- Ability to organize own work, coordinate projects, set priorities, meet deadlines, and follow up on assignments with a minimum of direction.
- Receptiveness to coaching and the ability to accept/follow guidance from others.
